Whatever happened to crime and PUNISHMENT???

A criminal is suppose to be punished, not rewarded.... What next, free condoms to rapists, a free case of scotch and a tank of gas for anyone who kills someone DWI ??

The proposed settlement, is a payoff... Pure and simple... We all knew President Shrub was going to sell out the American citizens to play nice with his big business buddies who got him elected... But this is bad news for everyone but Microsoft.... And I thought they were the bad guys???

If indeed the Department of Justice has anything to do with justice... Then a solution that involves punishment for the monopolistic practices must be brought forward... Otherwise, we might as well rename your little club to the Department of Just Us... (* The rich and shameless)

Sincerely,

Dan Harper
